MIDTOWN EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION

Inspiring student success

Gold Star Mentoring Program

Investing in a Lifetime

You could easily say that Midtown Educational Foundation is one big investment opportunity—so long as you realize that the targeted investment is in the lives of some 1,100 at-risk boys and girls served by the Midtown Center for boys and Metro Achievement Center for girls throughout the past year.

There is no greater investment than in the life of a child.

This is demonstrably true at MEF, whose programs go far deeper than most youth-serving initiatives. They enhance the dignity of the person by focusing on academic excellence, virtue development, individual attention, and parental engagement. They encompass academics and strength of character.

In late 2017, MEF was honored with a grant through Invest for Kids, an annual conference of elite, charity-minded investors. Hundreds of other MEF “investors” also saw the potential in MEF students during the 2016-2017 fiscal year. Their names are listed in the following pages. We applaud them, and producing this Report allows us to thank them publicly.

In the financial world, every legitimate investment prospectus is required to warn investors that “past performance does not necessarily predict future results.” However, after fifty-two years serving more than 23,000 at-risk students on a lean budget and with a dedicated staff, MEF need offer no such warning. If anything, its prospectus can guarantee returns, in the form of money well invested and the incalculable dividends of helping to change lives for the better—and for the long term.

President, Board of Directors

Glenn Wilke
Executive Director

John McDonough addresses students at the Midtown Center for boys.

"The students at the Midtown Educational Foundation are incredibly bright and dignified, and I enjoyed their energy and spirit when I had the opportunity to speak with them. Through their questions, I could sense that they had a strong desire to learn. They showed tremendous respect and it was a pleasure to speak with them."

"MEF has a noble mission and I am proud to support them in their goals."

Juan Vasquez (left) at the 2017 MEF Golf Outing with respected sports journalist Hub Arkush, a longtime MEF friend and supporter.

"If a company hopes to thrive in the Chicago market, it needs to contribute to the Chicago community's success. Midtown, through its core values, helps to produce exactly the type of candidates that companies in Chicago will eventually want to hire."

Juan Vasquez -
Senior Data Center Construction Manager, CyrusOne

Sean Madison and his student, 4th-grader Esteban Venalozo

"I'm going on my fourth year as a tutor and my third year as an Auxiliary Board Member at Midtown Educational Foundation, and can tell you firsthand the life-changing impact the organization has had on me, my fellow volunteers, the outstanding staff, and especially the families I've worked alongside in my tenure. MEF has helped to fuel a newfound passion while providing me with lifelong and like-minded friends."

Sean Madison - Vice President of Operations, Foxtrot

over time—all faithful champions of Chicago's at-risk youth.

"Midtown Educational Foundation aligns with Tyson Foods' desire to help Chicago kids learn about nutrition and food. MEF stands out because it provides a unique combination of enrichment programming and individual attention to support low-income youth as they seek success in a modern, multidisciplinary urban community and economy."

Matt Pakula - Senior Manager, Corporate Social Responsibility, Tyson Foods (sponsor of the Hospitality Apprenticeship at the Metro Achievement Center for girls, and host of MEF's 2017 Christmas party)

"When investing, you look for results, and MEF is outstanding in its track record of success. The organization has made high school graduation and college enrollment a reality for eighteen consecutive classes of students – eighteen years of perfection with no sign of slowing down!"

Lauren Golanty - Senior Manager, Client Relations, Riveron (sponsor of MEF's golf outing, awards dinner and annual soiree)

Hi Brent,

Invest For Kids' due diligence process entails evaluating a number of factors, including programming, leadership, board engagement, impact, and strategic plans. In 2017, IFK received and reviewed over 100 applications and, in every category under consideration, Midtown Educational Foundation rose to the top.

Among other factors, IFK was especially impressed by (1) MEF's holistic approach to mentoring, which includes concentrating on both academic success and character development while working with children and their families; (2) MEF's newest initiative focused on workforce development through a career apprenticeship program; and (3) the special camaraderie IFK observed among MEF's leaders and sense of teamwork they demonstrated as they addressed the organization's mission.

IFK recognizes all that it takes for a nonprofit to persist for over 50 years; no doubt, MEF has reached that milestone because it has had a profoundly positive impact on so many lives.

Barb Wolf - Director of Charitable Giving, Invest for Kids

A Summary of MEF Programs

Walgreens One-on-One Program (4th to 6th grade)

Exceptional individuals serve as volunteer tutors/mentors for students. In weekly sessions, they help students with homework, present them with positive role models, and develop in them the study habits associated with high achievers.

Midtown/Metro Achievement Program (7th & 8th grade)

Math, science and English courses prepare students to enter college preparatory high schools and ultimately, college. Character development helps students begin to form a decision framework and vision for their future.

College Orientation Program (9th to 12th grade)

College, career and social readiness are emphasized in this program, which offers ACT prep, rigorous academics, enriching character classes, and help with college and scholarship applications. Students also engage in extracurricular offerings such as apprenticeships, community service projects and cultural and college field trips.

The Parenting Program

Seminars, support groups and individual counseling support parents in their important role as the primary educators of their own children.

Our Mission

Midtown Educational Foundation guides low-income urban youth in Chicago along pathways of success. Our proven enrichment programs embrace the dignity of the person by focusing on academic excellence, virtue development, individual attention, and parental engagement.

MEF programs are rooted in Catholic moral and social teaching and embrace students regardless of their religious, racial, ethnic, or familial status. MEF received its original inspiration from Opus Dei, an institution of the Catholic Church, and continues today its partnership with Opus Dei.
