Midtown Center derives its inspiration from the social and moral teachings of the Catholic Church, and from the Catholic institution of Opus Dei.

We welcome students, parents, teachers, and volunteers from all backgrounds, regardless of their religious, racial, ethnic, or familial status. We do not discriminate on the basis of any characteristic protected by law.

Our character programs promote universal human virtues applicable to all people.

MIDTOWN SERVES:

- 4th-12th grade boys
- Chicago area residents
- Low income families

PARENTS

Midtown supports parents in their role as the primary educators of their children by providing resources in character development, home management, and communication within the family.

THERE IS A PROGRAM FOR GIRLS, TOO!
